Snip Crenshaw, Willard Odom and Talbert Yeager will have to scrouge over in the announcement column and make room for Dave Dogan.

Grenada will probably be represented at the Post Commanders and Adjutants Conference in Jackson next Sunday by Lewis Odom, our excellent commander.

The old lady has been off at Meridian at an Episcopal meeting most of the week, hence there is little society dope except that from the pinch bitter on Page 5.

That fellow in Beat Four, referred to last week, burned the last side, and moved that night, as predicted.

Dear George: appreciate your interest in the matter. Unpardonable for me to have failed to write. Felt hesitancy in approaching Jerry, but hope he can do something. Letter received by air mail today. Thanks, again.

The entire town sympathizes with that good man, Brother E. R. Henderson, in the loss of his aged father early this week. His father, like the son, had devoted his life to Christian ministry.

Santa Claus finally brought William Wright those fifty aces.

Our old fellow soldier, Donald Sharp, will go to work next week as district man under State Tax Collector Carl N. Craig. His friends wish for him much success in his new work.

The gals at the cafe changed our dog's name from Penny to Bilbo, but have neglected to get him a red neck tie.

"What is THAT man beefing about?" is a question on many lips. Nobody seems to know.

Claud Perry is doing a good deal of handshaking, and so is Lee Benson. Watch 'em, folks.

Folks disagree about how deep the snow was, and how cold it got, but everybody agrees that we had a hellacious spell of weather.

Inasmuch as we do not care to pass judgement on the honesty, or lack of honesty, of any of the aldermanic candidates, we are running all of them free. We merely put all of them before the people and let the people judge them.

With Ed Crump's blessing, Cliff Davis, in-law of several Grenada people, is already in Congress. Why they want to go to the expense of an election, we are unable to say. Hurrah for Cliff, and hurrah for Ed Crump, benevolent despot of Memphis.

The old lady was in Meridian Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week attending some kind of Episcopal meeting. Me and the pore chillen made it the best we could.

Jeff Wilkens, nestor of Duck Hill, paid his dues this week.

I do not know what nestor means, and have been wanting to call somebody a nestor, so tried it out on Jeff.

When Mr. Top, I failed to see you satyatin I wuz in yore town jaxon. I wint to see ower ole fren jedge Jonsing but there wuz so many yu thim fellers huntin jobs thet I cudn git nere the more whitish is still open.

Marshall Perry, our new county attorney, transacted legal business in Jackson Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Me and Bilbo.

Ed Holcomb, head man of Holcomb, traveled the winds one day recently to transact business in the county capital.

One guess is as good as another on these races in Grenada. Some say one, some say another. We keep our mouth shut, for we are a bad guesser anyway.

Me and Mike, since everybody has worried so about us.

NUMBER TWENTY-EIGHT

Final Report Of The Grand Jury

To the Honorable Joe D. Guyton, Special Circuit Judge:

We, the Grand Jury, duly elected, empanelled, charged and sworn to inquire in and for Grenada County, Mississippi, and being required by law to make report to your Honor, beg to respectfully report as follows: to-wit:

That we have been in session 3 days, and have examined 45 witnesses, relative to 14 separate matters. Pursuant to our examinations and investigations we have returned into open court 9 indictments.

We have examined the books of the County Auditor and the Books of the Sheriff and Tax Collector and we find them to be well and neatly kept. So far as we are able to ascertain, the funds of the county have been properly expended and properly accounted for.

We have examined the County Jail and find it to be in clean, sanitary and satisfactory kept condition. Also we are informed that a project is now underway for the further improvement of the County Courthouse, which will result in even more satisfactory conditions in that building. Our examination at this time reveals that the court house is now in good repair and in a clean, satisfactory condition.

Upon examination we find that the inmates at the County Home are well cared for and contented.

A condition on which we have made special investigation, and which has been given the particularly careful consideration of the Grand Jury, and on which we wish to report to the court, is the alarming amount of cattle thefts and unlawful cattle transportation which now appears to have been prevailing for some time. The Grand Jury believes, from its investigations, that this particular brand of criminal activity has resulted in extensive loss to the farmers and cattlemen of this county. And in view of the laws that we now have on the statute books, regulating said activity, these losses are unnecessary and unjustifiable. The Legislature of this state has seen fit to enact laws to cope with this outlaw activity. Under the terms of Section 799 of the Mississippi Code of 1930, every butcher or dealer in cattle, sheep or hogs, who shall fail to enter in a book the names of all persons from whom he buys, and a description of the marks, brands, and otherwise of all animals bought by him, and who fails to permit an inspection of that book at any time requested by any person interested shall, on conviction, be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months, or be fined one hundred dollars, or both.

This Grand Jury now expresses the hope, now that this provision of the law has been thus especially noticed, that future Grand Juries will call in all known cattle dealers and require them to exhibit their books, as above required, to the Grand Jury, in a stringent effort to curb cattle stealing and unlawful cattle transportation. Also, Chapter 294 of the Laws of 1936 requires persons transporting cattle or swine in motor vehicles to have with them a bill of sale showing (1) from whom purchased; (2) description of the livestock so purchased; (3) signature and address of seller; and (4) date of sale and delivery, or, failing to have such bill of sale, then the person so transporting said livestock must have the certificate of two disinterested persons, who are his neighbors, stating that he is the bona fide owner of such animals.

Any law enforcing officer has a right to stop any person transporting cattle in a motor vehicle and demand to be shown the bill of sale or the certificate.

The Grand Jury wishes to call to the attention of the Sheriff and all other law enforcing officers these provisions of the law just mentioned, and the Grand Jury wishes to particularly impress upon these officers the importance of being most diligent in the enforcement of these laws for the benefit and protection of cattle owners in Grenada County. All violations apprehended should be promptly reported to the next session of the Grand Jury. The laws are simple. They are easily understood. They should be easy to enforce if the proper effort is made in that regard.

The Grand Jury is a secret body, but this Jury desires to say that there has not been a witness before it at its present term, who came voluntarily, seeking the assistance of the Grand Jury in the enforcement of the liquor laws and the enforcement of the law against slot machines and other gambling devices. The Grand Jury believes

Dave Dogan Announces For City Marshal

Dave Dogan told us to put his name in there with Odom, Crenshaw and Yeager, as he was a candidate for city marshal.

Dave Dogan has been sheriff of this county three different times since he was discharged as Color Sergeant of the Old Grenada Headquarters Company of World War days. Some memory shark may say we are wrong, but we do not believe Dave has ever been defeated in a county race. His last term as sheriff expired on the first of this year.

That he has had experience in law enforcement and as a police officer, and that he has a hellacious following in this community, are two statements that anyone would be foolish to deny. That Dave is good hearted, courteous and generous to a fault, are also true and well known.

That he is going to be a strong contender for the office he seeks goes without saying.

Here's Dave.

ARELLA BROOKS TO BE

Arella Brooks, wife of Ed Brooks, highly respected ex-mail carrier of Grenada, died in the Yazoo City hospital and will be buried at Powell's Chapel A.M.E. in Grenada at 11 a. m., Sunday, February 4, 1940. This ended her married career which began 44 years ago. She, like her husband, enjoyed the respect and esteem of all people, both white and colored.

"Miss Charleston" and "Miss Whinnia" have accepted invitations to be present at Mardi Gras Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thomas will return Friday from New Orleans.

that the Sheriff and the other law enforcing officers of Grenada County intend to enforce these laws. They are new men, only recently installed in office, and thus have not so far had time in which to actively take up the stringent, effective enforcement of the gambling and liquor laws. It is a fact which all had well acknowledge that the officers will have to get the evidence of these violations, by raids or otherwise, and they have six months in which to strongly arm themselves with evidence pending the empanelling of the next regular session of the Grand Jury in Grenada County, hereby by calls on these officials and assures them of its co-operation toward an active, aggressive, noticeable enforcement of these laws. That it should be done for the best interests of the people of this County and State is beyond question.

The Grand Jury wishes to respectfully thank your honor for the splendid charge given us upon the beginning of our labors. We also thank the Sheriff and all officers of the Court for the efficient and effective manner in which they have executed the processes of the Grand Jury at this term. And now, having concluded our investigations and completed our findings for this term of the court, and having rendered our report, we beg of your Honor that we may now be finally discharged.

This January 24, 1940.

Mardi Gras Ball Tonite Climaxes Festivities

Overshadowing all other social affairs of the week, the Mardi Gras Ball will be staged at the high school gymnasium tonight (Friday).

Keeping an annual custom, the identity of the King and Queen are being kept a secret, and are, naturally, the subject of a great deal of speculation.

The King's and Queen's court this year will be formed of at least a hundred Grenadians and visiting royalty, and a most cordial invitation is being extended to the people of Grenada and surrounding towns to be present and enjoy an evening of spectacular entertainment.

Mack Rae and his orchestra, "The Memphis Blues", an eleven-piece orchestra, will furnish the music. The present King, Mr. Earl Burkley, with his Queen, Miss Susan Proby, extend a cordial invitation to all to their court, and to be present when the 1940 King and Queen are crowned.

SGT. LOTT TRANSFERRED TO FORT SILL, OKLA.

Sergeant Daniel P. Lott, Headquarters Battery, 68th Field Artillery, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lott of Grenada Route 5, has been ordered to Fort Sill, Oklahoma to attend the Field Artillery School. The course is of four months duration and upon completing it, he will return to his home station at Fort Knox, Ky.

BIRD SEASON CLOSED THIS PAST WEDNESDAY

Grover Cunningham, county game warden, asked us to inform the hunters that the bird season closed Wednesday of this week.

There has been some discussion on the prospect of the legislature extending the season for a few weeks, but the law makers have decided not to prolong the season. Therefore, it will be unlawful to hunt after Jan. 31st.

Mr. C. M. Gibson Died Friday At Holcomb

Mr. Corey Marcus Gibson, 80, died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Minyard, in Holcomb, Friday, January 26, 1940.

He was born on September 8, 1860 and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Gibson, pioneer settlers of Grenada County. He became a member of the Baptist Church early in life. He lived practically all of his life in this county, where he was a useful citizen. His wife, the former Miss Emma Jackson, died a number of years ago.

He was buried at Sparta cemetery on January 27. Rev. E. R. Henderson and Rev. A. W. Bailey conducted the funeral services. Messrs. A. H. Boyd, Wade Carver, Bill Turner, Charles Carver, Ralph Minyard and Chester Martin were active pall bearers, while Messrs. George Keosler, Jim Keosler, Sam Curb, John Hayden, Volney Nason and Arthur Williams and Dr. A. S. Hill were honorary pall bearers.

He is survived by three daughters and one son: Mrs. J. M. Minyard of Holcomb; Mrs. J. C. Howard of Hermanville; Mrs. Nellie Tune of Memphis; and Mr. M. C. Gibson of Washington D. C. Two brothers, J. A. Gibson of Grenada and Tom Gibson of Fort Worth, Texas, and two sisters, Mrs. Bob Edwards and Mrs. Frank Lawrence, both of Holcomb, also survive.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our sympathy.

Let's Protect State Employees Also

It is apparent that some sort of compensation bill will pass the present session of the state legislature.

Any bill that passes should, by all means, give protection to the employees of the state, as well as to the employees of the subdivisions of the state.

Today, with no workmen's compensation law, let us visualize two men, A and B, both working on a certain highway project. A works for the highway department and cuts his foot with a bush axe while cutting out a sight line for the instrument man. B works for the contractor and cuts his foot with a bush axe while cleaning off right-of-way. A gets no compensation, has no chance to sue for compensation, gets no hospitalization, and is not even allowed his daily wage while he is incapacitated. B is covered by insurance, and whether by suit or voluntary adjustment, gets whatever compensation that is rightfully due him for his injury and for his loss of time.

Right here in Grenada County, we have a case in mind. Mr. Purney Trusty, while working for the county, was killed on January 1st. The law recognizes no responsibility upon this employer (the county) for Mr. Trusty's death, nor, had he been injured, would the county have had any legal responsibility, nor could the county have exercised any means of reimbursing Mr. Trusty for loss of time or for medical and hospital bills.

In short, if an employee of the state or of any of its subdivisions gets injured, it says, "There he is boys, take him to the hospital, at his own expense"; or if he is killed, "There he is boys, take him and bury his body". Its a cold-blooded proposition, but it is in keeping with the law which, as stated, now recognizes no responsibility on the part of the state, or its subdivisions, for the welfare of its employees.

The state and its subdivisions, including the highway department, employ tens of thousands of men, for none of whose welfare the state recognizes any responsibility. We say that's not right. Any compensation law which is passed by the state should permit the state to be as liberal to its own employees as the state FORCES other employers to exercise toward their employees.

If we are going to have a workman's compensation law, let the state assume its responsibility also.

Four More Years of Bootleggery

Governor Johnson's announcement that he would veto any liquor bill that came to his desk, was received with great joy by the bootleggers and by the rabid "drys" and this announcement, to our mind, presaged for this state four more years of hypocrisy, skulduggery and monkey business so far as liquor is concerned.

One not acquainted with the real facts would be surprised at the number of personal "drys" who are sick of the present era of bootleggery and who want some form of control laws concerning the liquor business.

The rabid "drys" have scored a victory (?), if it can be so called, while the bootleggers can go ahead with their business without great disturbance.

To say that Mississippi cannot banish liquor from its borders and to say that it will continue to be sold, law or no law, are not abdications to the liquor interests, as some might interpret, but they are merely recognitions of facts AS THEY ARE.

Mississippi has tried prohibition for nearly half a century. Prohibition has proved to be a miserable failure. The Federal government, after trying national prohibition, gave up the job as an impossible one after about a decade. Forty-five states gave prohibition up as an impossible task. Mississippi and two other states, alone, keep crying "prohibition, prohibition", like children lost in the woods, when there is no "prohibition".

Some form of control is, in our opinion, infinitely better than this foolish prating of "prohibition". Anyway the bootleggers and the rabid drys are happy, and that's something.

Toler Promoted

While the entire state will regret to see Kenneth Toler, who for eight years has interpreted news originating in Jackson for readers of the Commercial Appeal, leave that post that he has filled so ably and so impartially, it will be delighted to learn that he has received a merited promotion to Tri-States editor, with his desk in Memphis. He will be replaced in Jackson by Mr. Sisson, a Mississippian by birth, who has been the Nashville correspondent for the Old Reliable.

Withal, we hate to see Kenneth go, for he had got the "run of things", had the proper contacts, and had his head crammed with Mississippi ins and outs to such an extent that he could interpret news more accurately than any man, without Kenneth's knowledge and contacts, could interpret them—until and unless that new man acquired the knowledge that Kenneth already possesses.

In his new position as tri-states editor, we wish him well, and believe that the news from this area will not suffer by the change.

The aldermen must have slipped a little last week, as they were sorter cussed "at".

It looks like Hugh White is going to try the huge and almost impossible job of uprooting Bilbo from his hold on the senate chair.

Pay your subscription.

Heard Around Jackson

Loafing around Jackson last week-end, looking and listening, we heard a lot of things—some true, some fantastic, and some just plain false.

We heard that the anti-Bilboers had about settled on Hugh White as the "white hope", that Hugh was the best bet, having left office with the friendship of many of the vote-controlling individuals and organizations, including the Highway Department in the middle and southern districts particularly.

We heard that Hugh, while ostensibly enjoying the freedom from care, often laid his ear to the soft earth of Marion County to listen to the afar off rumblings.

We heard that, in spite of the most favorable launching of the steamship "Average Man", with Capt. Johnson in command, that craft is likely to encounter a good many snags, rocks, drifts and other impediments on its trip up the River of Legislation, and that the trim craft "Average Man" will, before the completion of its voyage, become a disreputable tramp steamer, if it is not lost entirely in the fogs and storms.

We heard that a majority of the senators have become sort of inquisitive, like Mike Conner was, and want to know where the money is coming from, and will refuse to budge until that question is answered.

We heard that there is a good deal of talk of raising the sales tax from two percent to four percent to supply the money for school books, old age pensions, etc.

We heard that "they", whoever "they" is or are, are saving Mike Conner to clean up the mess, but did not hear what mess "they" are talking about.

We heard that there is likely to be an attempt made to refer the matter of liquor control to the people, that is, have a referendum on the matter, as was done in Conner administration.

We heard that Tom Bailey and Lesser Franklin both were already running for governor for the next term.

We heard that the "dollar-a-day" will likely shrink to "four-bits-a-day" and that the free school books will be given only to those parents who cannot buy them.

We heard that there is already a law on the books to permit doing the above.

We heard that one bootlegger in Jackson sold 42 cases of hickory the first day of the cold snap.

We heard that some fellow named Abernethy up in Pontotoc was figuring on running against A. L. Ford for Congress.

We did not hear this, but actually saw Sam Lumpkin in a damsite better company than he usually keeps up at the Capitol.

We heard that Governor Johnson said that he was sorry he took the hinges off the door to his office, that the job-hunters are about to run him nuts.

We heard that Senator Winter is highly regarded by his colleagues for his good sense and his conservatism.

We heard that the senators miss Frank Harper, but can stand it.

We heard (but did not believe) that the payrollers were going to start to work this week.

We heard that Mr. Tom about broke even on that special edition he got out last month.

We heard that several, expecting good jobs from the state, did not get any jobs at all.

We heard that Mike Conner is sitting back grinning.

We heard that the ad valorem state levy would be raised from six to eight mills.

We heard that Senator Roberts was going to introduce a bill to abolish the boll weevil.

It's Not Our Fault

If you did not pay your poll taxes today, you are out of luck. The law says poll taxes must be paid on or before February 1st.

Too late, now, like the tormented soul said whilst Satan pitchforked him toward his duties in Hell. Too late, as they said when he came up and went down for the third time. Too late, as they said after the horse was stolen. Too late, as Tom Bailey said after he realized that he should have waited until 1943.

Too late, boys, for you to equip yourself to vote for Bilbo (or Hugh), if you have not already secured your receipt. Too late, too late, forever too late.

But it was not the fault of the press which has called the imminence of this day to the reader's attention for several weeks.

Too late, too late.

It Pays to Advertise

Last week Mr. John Haxby, proprietor of French Market in Grenada advertised in these columns for a mother cat, and stated that he would accept up to half a dozen mother cats.

When Mr. Haxby opened up Saturday morning, there was awaiting him at the front door, not a mother cat, but a handsome father cat who had seen the ad in the Grenada County Weekly.

Whether the father cat misinterpreted Mr. Haxby's ad, or whether the father cat wished to get in on the ground floor as potential master of the harem, was not disclosed by the father cat.

Anyway, it pays to advertise in the GCW.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

In the death of Senator William Borah, the nation lost a really great man.

But it will be a long time before February has five Thursdays again.

Note to correspondents: Send in accounts of births, deaths, and marriages AT ONCE. Routine news should be mailed Monday. Please observe these requests.

Poor Mitchell. There in Parchman for at least four more years.

Fulton McRee has been having a hard time here lately, as the favorite harpooning areas are frozen over.

One pain after another. Time we get through with Christmas, here comes tax paying time.

Me and Pat.

Much obliged to Vandiver for some more copy paper, on only one side of which was any of his writings.

Anyway, Cousin Eli is getting something from this cold spell.

If we had been getting anything for writing up those aldermen, we would have written more. You cannot expect a fellow to get very flowery on nothing.

Speaking of Bilbo, it looks as if he has bluffed out all potential opponents. They might as well save time and money, for apparently Bilbo is a sure shot, especially since he and Pat have kissed and made up.

Speaking of wood, Postmaster Criss was exhibiting a woman's size kindling axe at the post office the other day.

The boys on the jury are having a good time last week, making three bucks a day, and a good excuse at home for not totting in wood and milking the cows.

It looks like Paul's payrollers are about to begin to start to get ready to get down to business.

Me and Paul.

Charlie Ingram helps make up for one we cut off, for he started last week.

When some of the wimmen found out what the initials in L. T. Horn's name stood for, they were shocked.

It's getting cold and no mistake, as Hamp Graves was wearing his hat Sunday.

Cold as it was Sunday, Andrew Carothers went to Sunday School.

TWENTIETH CENTURY

Tuesday night, January 26th, at the community house, the Twentieth Century Club members entertained their "husbands" and "husband's substitutes" with a Calendar Dinner Party. Four tables were beautifully and artistically designed to suggest the four seasons of the year. For Spring, there was a delightful Spring Garden. July 4th was arranged for Summer. Halloween for fall and Christmas for the Winter.

The favors for the gentlemen were unique "Top Hats". For the ladies, tiny little baskets, each filled with salted nuts, and in the color motif of their seasons.

There were no names on the place cards, but a single calendar, bearing the dates of the birthdays, each in the season in which they fell.

It happened to be Mrs. E. A. Penn's natal day, so at her place was a tiny birthday cake. With Miss Walker at the piano, all sang "Happy Birthday to You".

The delicious turkey dinner was prepared by Mrs. H. W. Baker, and was served by a bevy of lovely young maidens from high school.

Miss Lucile Owen, in charge of the program, requested each club member to rise, introduce her husband by the nickname she calls him and that during the evening all must address him thus. Suffice to say, there were several "sweethearts", a number of "honkeys" and several "dears".

The men, in town, had to tell when, where, and under what circumstances they first saw and met their wives. A wonderful opportunity was given them to indulge in flattery, spin a yarn, and refer to Leap Year, etc.

The "Ladies Barber Shop" for men only, was the real climax of the evening's merriment.

The members of the club present with their escorts were as follows:

Mrs. J. L. Cooley with Mr. Cooley; Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt with Mr. Honeycutt; Mrs. Cowles Horton with Mr. Horton; Mrs. R. A. Clanton with Dr. Clanton; Mrs. H. J. Ray with Mr. Ray; Mrs. Bryan Revell with Mr. Revell; Mrs. Dick Smith with Mr. Smith.

Mrs. John Rundle with Mr. Rundle; Mrs. Orman Kimbrough with Mr. Kimbrough; Mrs. J. K. Avent with Dr. Avent; Mrs. E. A. Penn with Mr. Penn; Mrs. F. A. Stacy with Dr. Stacy; Mrs. Spivey Kent with Mr. Kent; Mrs. R. L. Vandiver with Mr. Vandiver; Mrs. J. C. Hathorne with Mr. Hathorne; Mrs. Giles Patten with Mr. Patten; Mrs. Gertrude Marders with Parish Taylor; Miss Lucile Owen with Miss Blanche Batten; Mrs. W. B. Waterman with Miss Mabel Walker.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

Special prayer service for foreign missions are being held this week by the ladies of the Presbyterian Auxiliary Monday at the first of these services Mrs. Grant led in saying the prayers. Mrs. Noel then gave a review of a book "From Tragedy to Triumph." On Wednesday, Mrs. Sel Roane led in prayers. Prayers will be held Friday.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Friday afternoon bridge club met in the home of Mrs. F. P. White to enjoy the afternoon of bridge. In addition to the members, the non-member guests were: Mrs. Worley, (incidentally, she won high score prize), Mrs. McKell, Mrs. W. V. Davis, and Mrs. Walton Todd.

Mrs. White, the hostess, served an enticing salad plate consisting of sandwiches, salad, candy and coffee. High score prize, a lovely guest towel, went to the one who out played the others or, it might be that she just got the cards; anyway Mrs. Worley was the victor. Mrs. Proudfoot won a box of home-made fudge for having caught the best cards.

Mrs. W. M. Caldwell, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Ethel George, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, and Mrs. F. T. Gerard returned to her home in Jackson Tuesday.

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker and Rev. C. S. Liles left Monday to attend an Episcopal Church Council in Meridian. They returned home Wednesday.

The Episcopal Auxiliary met Monday afternoon at the usual hour in the home of Mrs. Anther Keetle. Mrs. Sherwood the vice-president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Whitaker, took charge of the meeting and led in the devotional. Plans for the Mardi-Gras Ball were discussed and perfected. The meeting closed with benediction.

Mrs. Gertrude Marders went to Memphis to visit Mrs. Priddy, and while there attended "Gone with the Wind".

Mrs. Overton Pearson and son Overton Jr. motored to Arkansas Monday to visit friends and relatives.

KILLING SPACE WITH A FEW "WINDY" NAMES

Among Townfolks privileged to see the showing of "Gone with the Wind" in Memphis were: Mr. George Terrell, Miss Martha Hoffa, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolf, Andrew Whitaker, Miss May Bailey, Mr. Choppy Andrews, Miss Gladys Martin, Mrs. Gertrude Marders, Whyte Whitaker, Jr., Jack Martin, Miss Mary Louise West, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Rose, Dr. and Mrs. Avent and children, Buddy and Louise, Dick Rule, and Miss Owen, one of Mr. Rundle's many teachers.

B. B. Bingham from New Orleans is visiting his friend Bubber Echols at the Tie Plant.

Notes Taken At Court Last Week

Everybody missed Judge Allen off the bench. His absence was explained by the statement that he had a bad cold.

"Judge" Joe Guyton of Kosciusko pinch hit very acceptably for the judge.

Squire McKibben, one of the oldest of court attaches, not in years but in experience, we should say, was as usual invaluable.

While we could not and did not attempt to penetrate the veil of secrecy surrounding the grand jury, we hazard the guess that cow stealers may have a hard time unless they mend their ways.

More new faces on the juries than any one ever saw before. The new jury law appears to be working.

Inasmuch as there was not a James on either of the three juries, we feel sure that any cases carried before the Supreme Court from this Jamesless court will be thrown out.

Bob West got a taste of good county money again by being foreman of the grand jury.

Spivey Kent, too, got his first sip of that easy money, tho he was discharged from jury service for good reasons made known to the judge. He got his attendance money and mileage for one-twentieth a mile.

Our good friend, Babe Costlow, obtained the softest of all jobs, standing at the gate leading from the main auditorium to the court room, and letting everyone who wanted to pass, pass, and you ought to be ashamed to take the money—That is a real soda cracker job, Babe.

Our new District Attorney, Hon. J. P. Coleman of Ackerman, acted like a veteran, and all his friends are predicting great things for him.

W. B. Rook connected with the job of tyler of the grand jury room. If they have a tyler. Anyway, he guarded the door.

Ike Stone came down from Coffeeville and verified our repeated statement that Mitchell is still "there".

Farmer N. N. Wright's smiling face adorned Jury 2, while he with equanimity and calm drew 3 bucks a day.

Several of the old lame ducks waddled up to court.

Goose pimples broke out on some of the supervisors as big as tumble bug pills when the judge began telling of all those crimes and misdemeanors of folks.

They had an organ on the grand jury, if doleful music was needed. G. W. Organ.

County Attorney Marshall Perry acquitted himself most admirably at this his first session in that office.

Bill Lott, an experienced court attache, took a prominent part in the proceedings but will never be able to say "Order in the Court" like Nink Perry.

Ernest Barnette appeared to like his first sip of stop from the public trough, those three bucks a day for looking wise.

There were several veterans on the juries to lead the new one right—Chas. Cohea, Chink Clark, Lacy Thomas, Guy Mitchell, Monroe Perry, W. W. Roumaville and Leland Whitten.

Woodrow Wilson was absent, but Woodrow Tribble pinch hit for him.

It was terrible on some of the county jurors who were tired of this home made corn, who came to town expecting to find plenty of government stuff on hand, to find the lid on tight.

The Smith clan was represented by O. D. Smith.

Everybody wondered why the court was getting off to such a slow start. They were waiting for C. V. Gibson.

Politics here in Grenada is (are) getting hot. Votes for alderman are now quoted at two for a nickel. No bidders.

Anyway, the plumbers got a break recently, what with broken pipes, etc.

SNOWY FUN

Last week, just half-way between the basketball tournament and Mardi Gras Ball, had threatened to be dull and uneventful. The snow, together with Mr. Rundle's unexpected gift to us of a whole day of fun in the snow, has made it a most happy and enjoyable week for us.

It began Monday night at about 6:30 and came in frequent furies all Monday night and most of Tuesday until it was about 7 1/2 inches deep—just right for sleighing. We agree with Margaret Halsey when she spoke of a beautiful snow scene thusly: "It would be perfect if we had a calendar beneath it."

A gay truant spirit pervaded throughout the whole high school crowd. Those people who have been laughed at these many years for harboring sleighs, at last had their chance to show them off all last week. Out of cellars and attics came musty, creaking sleds. Among the keenest looking ones were those owned by: Ann Duncan, Louise Avent, Fred Hill Joiner, Bobby Burroughs, Binkley Thrower, L. D. Boone, Kenneth Nail, Dorothy Taylor, Emmett Bartlett. There were others but they were going so fast that we saw only a blur.

Louise Avent looked darling in her blue-woolen snow suit and yellow crocheted cap. Everybody looked very rosy and bundled up. We were surprised to see Evelyn and John Vickery in town on a cold like Tuesday.

Doris Milner, Betsy Ann Smith and Dorothy Parks were stamping around town taking pictures every minute with Betsy Ann's new camera. By the way, they are the best natured trio we've seen yet.

Where were you Tuesday, Kathleen Nail? Mary Lou Cullen was the leading ice lady on Cherry Street and distinguished herself by some extraordinary maneuvers. We heard that Jack Hudson was making candy at Vern Pendergrass' house. We glimpsed a regular "Cavalcade" of sleds tied to the back of Brother Thrower's car.

Among the rosiest was Carolyn Whitaker who was having fun without Winter. A bunch was up on Pine Hill all day Tuesday and every afternoon after school last week. And gosh, such quaredevil personalities were round to exist under such quiet exteriors as Nellie Joiner, Beebe Cullen, Bobby Burroughs and Oh Johnny Keeton.

The little Mosses were there "en masse", red ears and all. Billy Semmes and Francis Hill contented themselves with speculating, commenting and advising after an unhappy fall into the creek. Bobby Burroughs' sleigh was spoken of in very laudatory terms and was the object of much envy. Bennie Moore, the personality kid, was having fun talking to Ernestine McNulty and Lil York.

A mysterious Lucy was surrounded by admirers, but we don't know her last name. Brunson, his usual playful self, in a more mischievous moment side-tracked Katy Carlisle and Kenneth Nail, causing a great upset.

Mickey, we are dreadfully sorry to report, is in very great pain, caused by his feet having been frozen. L. D. Boone was exhibiting his skill and impromptu but very becoming snow suit. Dick Rule, Wormack Smith and Benton Keeton were there too, having lots of cold fun.

By the way, a new word was added to my vocabulary this snow season when I learned that an overture was an upset sleigh in the snow. Saw Miss Haynes bundled up in a new scarf and hat set and slacks. And I saw some more, but for be it from my amiable self to stir up animosities on Adams Street.

Underneath and completely covered by snow was Bubber York, the current "best" among snow men. Elizabeth Dogan was making praulines. Pauline Richardson greatly swelled the volume of sound on Pine Hill while being chased by snow ball throwers. Charlie Calloway was exerting every ounce of his ability in trying to wear out his pants by sliding down Pine Hill.

Tommy Houston was, of all things, riding his summertime bicycle all day Tuesday.

So far as we know, everybody else was at home reading "Ivanhoe" by the firelight.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

Wednesday morning in chapel our debating teams composed of William Winter and Francis Hill on the affirmative team and Kenneth Nail and Dick Rule on the negative team, argued government should own and operate railroads.

They will go to Winona next week and meet the team there. Friday, Francis and William spoke before the Lion's club the question: Resolved, that the Club.

Note to Dies Committee: You'd better look into those Swastikas that are adorning the board in the science lab.

G.H.S. DIRT

Which debating team are Francis and William on?
 Edgar Brunson: The positive.

Jay Gore in science lab: "Shut that door, don't you know its cold enough out there already?"

Mary Nell Rayburn, Ruth Townes, and Mildred Pate narrowly escaped a catastrophe uptown Thursday when they all fell down on the slick ice.

HIGH SCHOOL LOVE

The Freshman so quaint and meek. Lost her love to the Sophomore sheik. But the Sophomore boy, his head in a whirl, Made desperate love to the Junior girl. The Junior girl, in her big sedan, Made open love to the Senior man. And this Senior man, so flirty and wild. Secretly loved the Freshman child. —By a disappointed lover.

A return to Victorianism was noted in the government class when Posey Gant and Kenneth Nail were seen with duce caps.

GRAND EXPOSE (How they work, their algebra)

John White, by the copycal method; Jack Hudson, by the Hammondical method (only the fifth period study hall students can appreciate this); Francis Hill and William Winter, by the Slow-But-Surical method; D. M. Taylor, by the Last Minuteical method; Kathleen Nail and Onie Eldson, by the Slow-But-Wrongical method; Dorothy Whitaker, but the Daddyical method. Then there are a few original manuscripts.

Johnnie Keeton and Dick Rule are truly the Daniel Boones of their age, for they were making trails all over the campus Friday afternoon.

Judge: Why did you shoot that man nine times?
 Man: Aw, I was just playing.

READY REPARTEE

What big eyes you have, my child.
 The better to see you with.
 What big ears you have!
 The better to hear you with!
 What big teeth you have!
 The better to eat you with!
 What a big neck you have.

Diogenes, to a high school student: What did you make on examinations?
 Student: Four "F's".
 And Diogenes blew out his lamp and went home.

Comrades Austine Kelly and Walter Trussell followed the chase Tuesday in the snow. P.S.: They caught a rabbit.

Trite expression: "Br-r-r-r!"

Flash! Mildred Thomas went to the Donkey Basketball game Monday with Jimmy from Senatobia.

We surely are proud of our basketball teams. Congratulations!

When Shakespeare said "Men are deceivers ever" he didn't know Bubber York who remains true to Susan although she's been gone since Christmas.

Aur army heroes, Wayne Vick, Chapman Roane, D. M. Taylor, S. B. Spence, Cecil Hendricks, W. A. Woodall, and Tom Hardy, came back from National Guard Camp as virile as ever, but slightly frosted.

Certain freshmen named Harold Moss, Johnny Mitchell, John Edgar Griffin, Jack Harrison, Byrd Trussell and Milton have to have Miss Stevenson get a bayonet after them practically before they will get up their English.

SNIFFLES, COUGHS AND SNEEZES

Since the cold wave that struck Grenada in December threatens to be permanent, we decided that we would give our readers the benefit of the superior remedies for colds and flu advocated by some local sages.

Bernice Jones prefers a 125 percent alcohol solution concocted by Von Leo Semmes.

Carolyn Whitaker favors a two-week vacation from school.

Marjorie Chapman advocates coal oil and sugar.

Effie Mae Frazier and Carolyn Tilghman think that hot soda water is a sure-fire cure.

Katherine Harrison has deep convictions concerning the merits of Alka Seltzer for the cure of colds.

Billy Guy Thomas says there is nothing better than going to bed and resting.

Sybil Roane likes to take a lemon for her cold.

Margie Collins advocates playing in and eating snow—a remedy whose merits our mothers might argue about.

Pearl Martindale is a firm backer of Vicks salve and says it is the only thing to cure your cold.

Camilla Smith has a theoretical cure for colds—sneezing!

Mr. Rundle: For repulsion, try Creomulsion!

John White suggests a bit of heat.

TYPICAL SCENES IN SCHOOL

Charles Calloway in the role of a cat yawling mournfully at the zenith.

Coach Hathorne making sketches on the board that might be anything you wanted to call them.

Mr. Rundle up on a ladder making some needed repairs.

Jack Hudson asleep with his head in his hands.

Charlie Kenwright surrounded by a host of admirers listening to some tall tale.

Francis Hill amazing the wondering student populace with his pompous walk in the study hall and saying, "You are my girl!"

Rice York reclining on his spine, beginning a heated argument and then stopping and grinning in the middle of it for lack of energy to go on.

Edgar Brunson chewing gum and talking about the night before.

Price Harrison combing his wavy hair.

Emma Grace sending a relay message to Billy Guy at the other end of the study hall.

Gum coming out Miss Owens' window in torrents.

Everybody's mouth opening to form the words: "I don't know."

BOOK ENDS

"World Famous Paintings" is the name of the collection of prints of the most famous oil paintings in the world. This collection of paintings is bound in a large expensive volume that was edited by Rockwell Kent. For information, entertainment and beauty, this book is the most valuable one in our library.

Now, all of us may receive the benefits and enjoy the beauties of the paintings of the masters without leaving our own school. Turning to plate three we find a splendid print of Da Vinci's "Mona Lisa". We could spend hours gazing at this picture alone, drinking in the beauty of her face, trying to ascertain the truth or prove the fallacy of the countless myths we have heard concerning the complexity of the subject's face, or form opinions of our own as to the meaning of her smile. Better still, we might just enjoy the picture because of its beauty. However, Mona Lisa is admittedly an unfinished picture, and the quizzical smile on the subject's face was sustained by the music made by a band of musicians hired by Da Vinci just for the purpose of keeping that particular mood of his subject. It is a good example of many of the paintings that we have read so much about that we never think about forming our own opinions about.

Da Vinci's "Last Supper" we view with regret. Regret because so much of the original beauty has been lost and faded by the ravages of time. We can still appreciate the architectural arrangements to focus attention on the head of Christ; we can appreciate his wonderful depiction of the lack of harmony among the disciples. We could spend hours tracing the characteristics of the Disciples from Biblical accounts, comparing our own ideas about them with the artist's ideas.

Skimming over to plate 19, "1814", by Meissonier of the French school, we find a splendid example of form in every detail. The picture is as realistic and crystal-like as the best of photographs. He captures this picture of Napoleon and his staff returning from the Battle of Laon.

Very different from "1814" is a sentimental portrait of the closeness of youth and old age "The Music Lesson" by Muenier. The analogy of color is splendid. It is a sweet, restful picture and we wonder just how much old age and youth have in common.

Let us enjoy these masterpieces that have so many meanings and required so much skill and patience. These great works of art are expressions of great souls and we can profit very much by trying to find the meanings of the pictures.

The Girl Reserves had a good attendance at the meeting Thursday and were glad to have Sue Vandiver present.

Sue lead in prayer, followed by song. The program was a continuation of the last meeting. Because everyone wanted to sing, more Girl Reserve songs were sung.

Francis Hill says that sometimes a fellow refrains from hitting another for fear that he won't hit him hard enough.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

We are going down and visit Paul's payrollers sometime. If they ever stop the custom of meeting on Tuesday and quitting on Thursdays. Those are busy days too.

Have never been able to get hold of that picture of Jimmie McClintock in the bathing suit, for I was planning on publishing it for the edification of all.

With the dual responsibility of regular editor and society editor, we are about fatigued.

BULLER-BILLER

Mrs. U. Will Biller announces the marriage of their homely daughter, Beller, to Mr. L. K. Buller, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Buller of Iowa, the wedding having been a sort of forced affair, with shotguns and rifles in the background, and performed by a rural justice of peace over near the edge of the free state.

Mr. Buller went through the local schools one time when he was delivering some ice and later attended night school under the WPA. He worked several months for the Works Progress Administration as gravel spreader until 403 got him, after which he has been living with his parents who are prominent share-croppers in the free state.

The bride finally finished school when the trustees in desperation burned down the building. She has been helping maw about the house, churning, etc. and is considered a good ride-dance about the Biller home, as she was always getting into something.

The GCW joins a few other friends in offering felicitations to the happy couple who will live alternately with the elder Billers and the elder Bellers.

Mr. L. P. Doughun spent the past week-end in Vicksburg getting cold and soaked, as things were sorter dry in Grenada.

Embarrassing

When Acid Indigestion, Gas on Stomach or Heartburn make you feel uncomfortable or embarrass you, try Alka-Seltzer, which contains alkalizing buffers and so helps counteract the associated Excess Stomach Acidity.

But the relief of these minor stomach upsets is only a small part of what you can expect Alka-Seltzer to do for you. You will find it effective for Pain Relief in Headache, Neuralgia, Colds and Muscular Aches and Pains. It contains an analgesic, (sodium acetyl salicylate), made more prompt and effective in its pain-relieving action by alkaline buffer salts.

When, hard work or strenuous exercise make you feel tired and dragged out, enjoy the refreshing effect of a glass of sparkling, tangy Alka-Seltzer.

MRS. SOAKUM HOSTESS

Mrs. I. Soakum was hostess to her Sunday Bridge Club last Tuesday afternoon in her FHA home on Cinder Avenue.

She finally borrowed enough chairs and tables to accommodate the twelve guests who came to enjoy the games.

There were no non-member guests, as all were able to think up excuses.

After a good deal of bickering and fussing, and after daggers flew from eye to eye, it was decided that Mrs. B. A. Yokum had won first prize, a pair of tin cigarette holders from the ten cent store, which Mrs. Soakum had received as a Christmas present from her aunt in Phillip.

The hostess served a skimpy salad plate containing some paleozoic ham between wafer thin bread, a spoon filled with shovelbill cat posing as salmon, a few stale vanilla wafers and a tepid cup of weak coffee.

Everybody congratulated the hostess while she was in carshot, and hardly got out the door before they began sneezing.

Mrs. I. C. Kneel and her three uninteresting and spoiled children from Palmetto surprised her sister, Mrs. I. Crysome, with a visit. She will be here until she and her brats take the hint that they are not wanted during this cold spell.

Mr. Glimed Uphigh has been ordered to take a complete rest at Whitfield Winter Resort after having had a nervous breakdown following over exertion in the vicinity of the elbow.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

After having had hysterics a dozen or so times trying to persuade her little daughter, Mustard, that she could not afford a birthday party for her until after the radishes had grown to use for Santa Claus heads, Mrs. C. Z. Musgrove reluctantly decided to throw the party for little Mustard who celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday.

Thirteen unruly little guests who tracked in snow, mud and slush until everything in the house will have to go to the cleaners, had a free for all when the refreshments were brought in. Several of the smaller guests did not get anything.

The hostess tried to get the kids to play ring around rosie, but that did not interest them, as little Jimmie Sowerest brought out a pair of dice and soon had all the cookies piled up in front of himself, which brought on a cry of "crooked dice". The party ended in pandemonium. The honoree's mother, Mrs. Musgrove, is now under the doctor's care.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. E. L. Sweetwater announces the engagement (at last) and approaching marriage of her old maid daughter, Meggo Maniaco, to Mr. Deepwater L. Jenkinson, the marriage to take place as soon as possible, as time is pressing and the groom-to-be is getting gun-shy.

Little I. Wanta Freebooks spent last week in Jackson seeing about the school book prospects.

The Bellengates family left this week for a trip to the wife's people and will be away until the first of the month bill collectors are called in.

POKER PARTY

The cozy nook behind the kitchen was the scene of a delightful poker party last Sunday evening in the heavily mortgaged home of Mrs. Deuce W. Tenspot. Most of the chips were corralled to the ample waists of Mrs. Hole M. Tite, who takes no chances. A variation to the usual stud and draw poker was introduced by the hostess who had a few rounds of "Dr. Pepper" with tens, twos and fours wild, and another round of "moustaches", with everything with a hair on his lip wild.

The hostess cut enough from the pot to pay for the licker, gin, the month's water bill and the delinquent light bill.

Eight ladies participated in this delightful affair, but they are still talking about how cold the room was, and how sorry the licker was.

PRE-STORM COLUMN

On account of the fact that the weather has been so cold, and the stores has been shooed off continually, there is little of interest to report under this head this week.

GIN PARTY

Celebrating the raise that Mr. Pigskin recently received, Mrs. Pigskin invited a score of friends to her home on Concrete Street to a gin and licker party last Tuesday night from nine until the licker gave out.

Everything went smooth until after the fourth drink when one lady guest, imagining herself Cleopatra and the host, as Mark Anthony, started some movie stuff. The hostess stood this for about fifteen seconds and began a lot of talk which astonished the other guests and actually made some of them blush.

Several of the more delicate ones got a little sick and blamed it on the stale coffee, of course. What these columns often refer to as "the charming living room artistically decorated with leganas, etc." soon looked more like a cyclone had passed through it. Anyway, everybody had a grand time, and each person finally got to his or her own home, after sundry mix-ups and delays en route. Several non-scheduled trips were made to the bootleggers, as the host's licker gave out before 1 a. m.

Jacob L. Penshun and family are preparing to leave Grenada to establish a new home in Colorado, where they will receive greater old age benefits.

THE JITTERBUG DANCE

On last Thursday night the famous Jitterbug Club held its weekly dance at the club rooms. The famous Nick Oleodon Orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

Among those attending from a distance were: Miss Susie Puelclothes and her escort, Wm. T. Uxedo; Miss Taura Lowreck and her escort, Rennie Barnley; Miss Cassie Chemise and her escort, Rolling Tumbleweed; Miss Let the Lingerie, with Jackson Airpop. They danced the night fantastic toe until found day stood tip toe on the misty hill top across Bogus creek.

A new club, the Honest Aldermen's Club, established recently in this city.

met at the home of one of its charter members Monday night. Poker, with plenty of wild cards, was enjoyed by some (who won). Whiskey and ice water were used as refreshments. The new officers were installed.

by Ouida Chapius, Deputy

A FEW of the HIGHLIGHTS of THIS CITY ADMINISTRATION

Low Cost Malaria Control

First, a clean-up campaign through the co-operation of the Government aid in Malaria Control, cleaning the ditches all through town which were veritable catch-alls for every imaginable rubbish, scrap heaps, brick bats, boxes, paper, tin cans, old shoes, and any and every thing to retard drainage and form sag holes of filthy, breeding mosquitoes and sickness, fully 70 percent of which have been cleaned, terraced, sodded and bottomed with 6480 lineal feet of concrete inverts, causing easy natural flow of drainage, and aside from salvaging property and changing from the unsightly places to a thing of beauty and cleanliness, make for permanent improvement. And this was all done with NO BOND ISSUE, and NO RAISE IN TAXES.

Obtained Hosiery Mill

Next, an enterprise I think we all have reason to be proud of—the latest improvement, Hosiery Mill in the United States, giving employment to a splendid citizenship, thereby stimulating business and growth of our City.

Low Cost City Paving

Next, 7,400.88 lineal feet of concrete paving has been laid at a savings in cost of fully half, or 50 percent, of former price.

Recreational Additions

Various other things such as the Lighted Sports Field, called "Proby Field", because of his active interest in soliciting the additional funds for its installation. Also a Tennis Court at the School Grounds. And a new Piano and an Oil Heating System at the community house, and an Automatic Chlorinator for water purification.

Street Department Improvements

Next, operating our Street Department at full efficiency, opening, widening, grading, and chinking Govan Street west to the corporation line, also Pecan Street from 51 Highway to the L.C. R.R. tracks in the east. Assisting in the hauling, grading on the paving project, thereby getting a credit on our sponsors report of more than $700.00—a savings to you and me over all sufficient to pay for and install our Signal Lights over previous operation and which are meeting with the expressed approval of more than 90 percent of the people.

Retired $96,000.00 Worth of Bonds

Now, the outstanding Bonds of the City at the beginning of my administration amounted to	$195,000.00
Hosiery Mill and Improvements	$78,000.00
Street Paving and Intersections	$82,000.00
	140,000.00
	$335,000.00
Bonds Retired to Date	96,000.00
	$239,000.00

Leaving outstanding over original only $44,000.00, which is $14,000.00 less than was issued for the Hosiery Mill and improvements, besides all other improvements, together with the Beautiful Green Grass Covered Park with the Stationary Benches.

4 Mills of Tax Levy Saved

As you see, all of this at a savings of four (4) mills, as your vote was for six and one-half (6½) mills, we only levied 2½ mills, thereby saving the people in three years approximately $30,000.00, an administration all should be proud of.

I submit this for your information, and earnestly solicit your support and vote for Mayor with a promise of continued economical management, growth and further improvements. I have worked out many more outstanding accomplishments for our City.

Very respectfully and sincerely, called fools me the truth or not, so I will have to send the paper to the other noncompoop to find out.

"Gone With The Wind" was too much for me to take in at one time, so I guess I'll have to see it again when it comes to Jackson. It was far too Titanic for me to grasp in four hours, of course, that isn't saying much; the average person probably can absorb it in one sitting.

Attend the Mardi-Gras Ball. Miss this at-Fair at your own risk. The All Saints Episcopal Auxiliary SOL-icits your presence and the "Memphis Blues" orchestra will labor to give you a good Time. So DON't forget the time February, 2nd; place, High School gym.

The snow really started melting Monday afternoon. Old Sol got tired of eyeing the white blanket, evidently.

The ally leading from Green st. to Main has been covered with ice, mind you it was slick enough to cause many a pass-through to fall on the south side of his anatomy.

Load your firing squad rifles; get ready to vote against the fellow who is flies in your soup. Aren't you glad that the only ammunition you need is a poll tax receipt. Candidates, DITTO

Well, boys, you will have to take a bath, be it cold as it is in Finland; you can't afford to come to the Mardi Gras Ball smilling like a tom cat.

The rubber good merchants have had the break of their lives. Nerry, every drygood store reports that at one time they completely sold out of boots, overshoes, galoshers, etc.

Personal to the Grenada males: By introducing out-of-town boys to the girls you can help make the dance Friday night a success. Considered them, as they are, our guest. They are going to leave Grenada with some impression, and we surely want it to be a good one.

We haven't much society news this week, not that anything didn't happen worthy of note here in Grenada, but the Society editor is out of town, and consequently we crap writers have made a sorry mess of getting it up; so we feel very apologetic, and assure you that it will be as interesting as ever next week. However, we do refer you to a very interesting and original page of "Loco and Unsocial Activities" written by Miss Asken Youlfundout, as well as the slogan, "Phone very Sel-dom".

The old heads about Grenada say that the weather we are having is moderate compared to the winter of 1890. Well, we young heads are glad that we weren't living then, for we wouldn't have lived to enjoy this slightly cold snap.

The plumbers are going to be busy as all getout for a week or so repairing broken water pipes. Nearly every home in Grenada has suffered the loss on account of non-transporting water carriers.

Nature has taken her toll of wild life that lurks in the woodland in this vicinity. It was impossible for the birds to secure food under the frozen ice and snow, and they had to depend on the few bugs and seed that could be found in the trees.

MR. WILLIAM FILLIAN CALLED BY DEATH

On the morning of January 27th the death angels visited the home of Mrs. Nancy Fillyaw taken from her her beloved husband. But God saw best to take him home to heaven to dwell forever.

He passed away in his home near Holcomb. But he was a native of Charleston but had made this his home for a number of years.

He was 70 years old but had not been sick much in his life. He only complained with his breast a few days before he died. He went to bed as happy as could be. He woke his wife with a struggle. He only lasted a few minutes. Never spoke a word.

He was a member of the Baptist Church. He leaves a wife, three sons, Lester, Bert, Sam; two daughters, Mrs. Bessie Logan of Carrollton and Mrs. Mary Mitchell of Carrollton.

Funeral services were held at Friendship Church at Charleston at 3 o'clock Sunday evening where the remains were laid to rest. Interment was in charge of Garner Brothers at Grenada.

MT. NEBO NEWS

Tude W. Sugg, one of our prominent planters, went to Graysport Monday to attend a stockholders meeting of the new gin there. He reports a prosperous season just passed under the management of Walter Koonce.

The past week here was hard on rabbits. Our Lord Mayor says the official count was 208 killed, of which Albert Clark bagged 16 from under one slab pile.

From diligent inquiry, we find that the stork failed to visit Nebo the past week. Walter Winchell himself would have nothing to report here today.

Miss Wanda Whilkens was all set Saturday for a tour to Sarepta, but on account of low temperatures couldn't get a permanent wave.

The mass meeting at town hall Saturday night broke up in a near riot when Sank Sniffle move to appoint a committee to visit Washington and ask for funds to build a bath pool. (WPA funds, of course.)

FIRST—There are none better.

SECOND—Because Purina Feed purchased from your good dealer Quinn's Milk Products Co. in 1939 cost $497.68. Eleven thousand pounds of which was shipped in cotton bags weighing 47.5 pounds.

THIRD—This feed was shipped here by Purina Mills of St. Louis, Missouri, via the Illinois Central Railroad Co., who are the largest tax payers in Grenada County.

FOURTH—I carry on my work with the aid of others whom I pay well.

FIFTH—Because this is all being done on waste land that was turned out until 1928.

You, the people of Grenada, have been good to me and I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate it. I hope I have shown my appreciation by earnestly endeavoring to render honest, efficient and faithful service. I have made mistakes (most of us do) for which I am sorry.

You will do me a great favor and I shall be grateful for it if you will give me your vote and influence in my campaign for re-election to the City Marshal's office in the coming city primaries.

I shall make every effort to see each of you and personally solicit your support.
